The Weston Federation Induction Policy

Introduction

The Weston Federation School's are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of the children in its care. The induction programme is a vital process that is undertaken to support newly appointed staff, volunteers and students.

The induction of new teaching and support staff, including trainees, is an important part of school life and essential in maintaining and developing the ethos of the school.

An effective induction programme for teachers and support staff is essential to maintain continuity of purpose and benefit from the additional expertise the new member of staff will bring.

The aims of this policy:

Our priority is to raise standards and improve the quality of education for all our pupils in a safe and welcoming environment. We believe staff who are well supported and confident in their roles will help achieve this more successfully. The Induction Policy and the Induction Procedures aim to provide all newly appointed staff, and those changing role, with a programme of structured support and guidance appropriate to their role to enable them to:

- integrate successfully into the school or new role;
- consolidate their performance
- gain experience and develop professional expertise
- fulfil their job description successfully
- have opportunities for observation and discussion of their work with senior staff to discuss any difficulties that may be experienced

- identify their potential for career development and take advantage of opportunities for CPD
- have opportunities to join in and contribute to discussions on school policy.

Procedures

All new staff will be provided with a Staff Induction Programme which will include information on safe guarding, child protection, health and safety, e-safety, the staff handbook, staff roles and responsibilities, first aid, SEN and the behaviour policy.

Teaching Staff

All new staff should be given appropriate induction advice, training and resources. This should include:

- The New National Curriculum
- Staff Handbook
- School Prospectus
- Access to Policy documents
- Year group schemes of work
- Assessment advice, recording, reporting, resources and procedures
- Class list
- Child Protection
- Safeguarding
- Behaviour Policy and Exclusions Policy □ Health and safety including Fire safety
- Information on whole school and year group resources, including ICT
- E-Safety
- Timetables
- PPA arrangements
- SEN information
- Roles and Responsibilities of all staff
- Educational Visits Policy

A member of the Senior Leadership Team will ensure new staff are given a guided tour of the school, identifying locations of resources, procedures, staff and other relevant information.

All new teaching staff will be allocated a mentor to provide advice and support on a daily basis.

New staff will have the opportunity with Senior Leaders to discuss additional training needs and difficulties they may be experiencing, in addition to Performance Management procedures.

An informal discussion at the end of the first month and then half termly during the first year with a staff colleague will be held to identify and resolve any concerns.

Newly Qualified Teacher's (NQTs)

Induction for newly qualified teachers will be provided, following guidance from the DfE and the LA taking account of proposals to use individual Career Entry Profiles. Induction advice and resources will be provided as for all teaching staff.

NQT's induction should

- match particular development needs, identified during training
- provide appropriate development related to the teacher's strengths
- identify targets to be achieved for the first year of teaching
- provide opportunities for the teacher and line manager to record agreed targets and an action plan for their achievement, linking the teacher's needs with the School Development Plan and targets.

NQTs are allocated a mentor for day-to-day advice and support. NQTs teach 90% of the normal teaching day. NQTs take part in the normal monitoring procedures and are provided with feedback to support assessment and development of the new teacher's practice. Additional supportive observation and feedback is provided by senior staff. Senior Leaders are available to discuss any additional training needs and difficulties that may be experienced. NQTs are not expected to take lead responsibility for a curriculum area .
